

Kazuki Hoshino, Ph.D.

Vice President

Vaccine Research Laboratories,
Kitasato Daiichi Sankyo Vaccine Co., Ltd.

Research background:

Infectious Diseases, Microbiology, Chemotherapy

Educational Background:

Chiba Univ., BA & BS in Pharmaceutical Sciences, 1984 & 1986

Chiba Univ., Ph.D. in Pharmaceutical Sciences, 1996

Industry Background:

1986-2007, Daiichi Pharmaceutical, Co., Ltd.

Discovery research on quinolones (levofloxacin, sitafloxacin) antimicrobials and β -lactams, 1986-1994

Research planning & administration of New Product Res. Labs I, 1994-1999

Senior researcher of New Product Res. Labs I, 1999-2007

Project leader of collaboration research with Microcide Pharm. Inc., US, discovery for new agents against P. aeruginosa, 1995-2002

Project leader of new quinolone antimicrobials discovery, 2003-2007

2007-Present, Daiichi Sankyo Co., Ltd.

Project leader of new quinolone antimicrobials discovery, 2007-2012

Director of Research Group, Biological Res. Labs, 2009-2012

Senior Director, Vaccine Research Group, Vaccine Business Strategy Department,
Vaccine Business Intelligence Division, 2013-2014

Vice President, Vaccine Research Laboratories, Kitasato Daiichi Sankyo Vaccine Co., Ltd. , 2015-2017

Vice President, R&D Planning & Management Department, Kitasato Daiichi Sankyo
Vaccine Co., Ltd. , 2017-
(temporary transfer)