

Mr. Kozo Watanabe

Deputy Director General, and Group Director for Health 2,
Human Development Department, JICA

Graduated from Kyoto University, Faculty of Law, worked for NEC Corporation and, since 1996 to the present, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA). As JICA staff, work for Health sector cooperation as Deputy Resident Representative, JICA Vietnam Office (1999-2002) and as Director, Health Systems Division, Human Development Department (2006-2011). Present Position is Deputy Director General, and Group Director for Health 2, Human Development Department in charge of JICA's Health sector cooperation projects in Asia and Pacific countries.