

Kiyoshi Kurokawa, MD, MACP; Professor Emeritus of National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS) and University of Tokyo; Chairman, Health and Global Policy Institute. A graduate of the University of Tokyo School of Medicine, professor of medicine at UCLA (1979-84), Univ Tokyo (89-96), Dean Tokai Univ Medical School (96-02); President of the Science Council of Japan (03-06); Science Advisor to the Prime Minister of Japan (06-08); He served as an executive member of many national and international professional societies of his disciplines; Commissioner of WHO (2005-09), Institute of Medicine of National Academies of Sciences of USA, Master of American College of Physicians and Founding Governor of ACP Japan Chapter; serve(d) as Board members of Alexandria Library (Egypt), A*STAR (Singapore), Khalifa University (UAE), OIST (Okinawa), Advisory Board to the Prime Minister of Malaysia. He was appointed a member of the World Dementia Council by the UK Government in April, 2014, Distinguished Research Affiliate of MIT Media Lab (2011-) and a member of International Scientific Advisory Committee (ISAC) of Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health (2015). He was Chair and Representative Director, Global Health Innovative Technology Fund ( 2013-June 2018), Chair of Fukushima Nuclear Accident Independent Investigation Commission by the National Diet of Japan (NAIIC; 2011.12-2012.7) and received "2012 Scientific Freedom and Responsibility Award" of AAAS and "100 Top Global Thinkers 2012" of 'Foreign Policy' for his leadership in NAIIC. He is a recipient of Medal with Purple Ribbon (1999) and the Order of the Rising Sun, Gold and Silver Star (2011 Spring) from the Government of Japan for Excellence in Academic Achievements, Order Legion de Honour of the Government of France (2009), Person of the Year of the American Chamber of Commerce of Japan (2010) and Distinguished Achievement Award of Tokyo American Club (2013) , His website: <https://kiyoshikurokawa.com/en/>